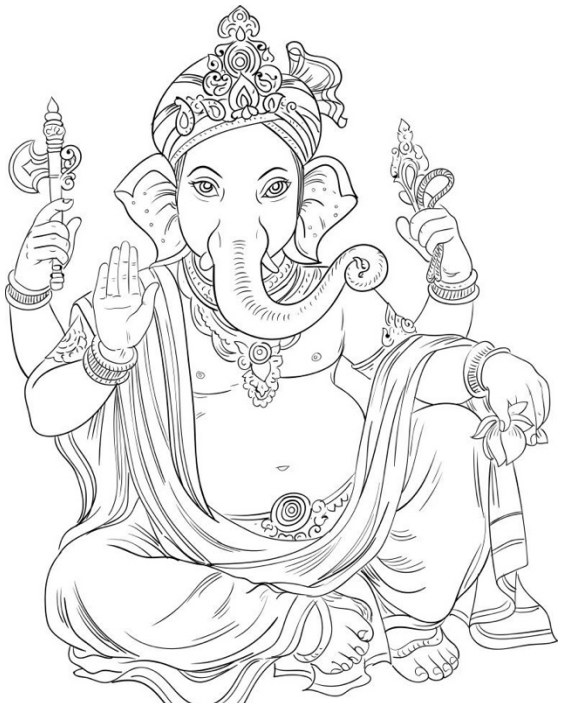
Gaṇapati Invocation



śuklāmbaradharaṃ viṣṇuṃ

śaśivarṇaṃ caturbhujam

prasannavadanaṃ dhyāyet

sarvavighnopaśāntaye

We meditate upon Lord Vigneśvara, the guardian and gatekeeper, who is all pervasive, who has a shining complexion (like the full moon), who has four hands (representing all power), who has an ever-smiling face (or an elephant face), for the removal of all obstacles.

Lakṣmi Gayatri Mantra

Oṃ

mahādevyai ca vidmahe

viṣṇupatnyaī ca dhīmahi |

tanno lakṣmīḥ[f] pracodayāt ||

I wish to have the knowledge of the most supreme goddess. I meditate upon she who is the partner of Vishnu, supreme consciousness. May the lustrous Lakshmi please come to me and illuminate my mind

Mahālakṣmi Stotram

oṃ

namaste'stu mahāmāye śripiṭhe surapūjite

śaṇkha cakra gadāhaste mahālakṣmi namo'stu te ||

Salutations to you, Oh Mahālakṣmi.
You are all power.
You are the seat of wealth.
You are worshipped by the Gods.
You carry the conch, the cakra and the gada in your hands.

Lakṣmi Bija Mantra

oṃ - śrīm - mahālakṣmyai - namaḥ

Prayer for Universal Peace

oṃ sarve bhavantu sukhinaḥ sarve santu nirāmayāḥ
sarve bhadrāṇi paśyantu
Mā kashchit duḥkha
bhāgbhavet
om śāntiḥ-śāntiḥ-śāntiḥ

May all beings be happy
May no one fall ill
May all see what is auspicious
May no one feel sorrow
Om Peace Peace Peace [unto the 3 sources of karma]